

TOM HARTLEY JNR

1953 FERRARI 250 MM Berlinetta
Grigio with Pelle Beige
£SOLD

Mileage	N/A miles	Engine Capacity	2953 cc
Body Style	Coupe	Fuel	Petrol
Transmission	Manual	Chassis No.	0310 MM

The tenth of just eighteen 250 MM Berlinettas ever produced.

Sold new to Dr Enrico Wax, a very early Ferrari VIP who was also the Italian importer of Moët & Chandon and Johnnie Walker whiskey.

Bought by Pierre Noblet in 1953 who went on to achieve many race wins with #0310 and was the car that started Noblet's impressive racing career which included countless victories in many very special Ferraris.

After passing through the hands of some of Europe's great car enthusiasts, it was entrusted to one of the world's finest restorers, Dino Cognolato who carried out an exacting restoration which was complimented by its "Best of Show" win at the prestigious Louis Vuitton Concours d'Elegance in 2000.

TOM HARTLEY JNR

Today itâ€™s one of the few examples that boasts its full matching number status as confirmed by its Ferrari â€™Red Bookâ€™™ Classiche Certification.