One of only 11 right-hand drive examples fitted from new with the more powerful six carburettor engine set up. Other factory options specified were a full leather interior including a leather dash fascia (in lieu of wood), red carpets and Borrani wire wheels. Delivered new to South Africa where it resided for over 20 years before coming to the UK. The car is fresh from a nut and bolt restoration by the world's leading Ferrari restorers, it's presented today in its original colours and has recently been awarded its full Ferrari 'Red Book' Classic certification, which confirms it still retains its original chassis, body, engine and gearbox. A car that would enhance even the finest Ferrari collection!
