A Ferrari 288 GTO is the original Ferrari supercar. Only 272 examples were ever produced and they are widely regarded as the most sought-after and important of all post 1960s Ferraris.

This particular example was ordered new with the optional extras of air conditioning and electric windows. It benefits today from the Ferrari 'Red Book' Classiche Certification which confirms the car still retains its original chassis, body, engine and gearbox.

Supplied new to Europe but is currently titled and located in North America and is fresh from a major service by marque experts.

The car is offered complete with its Schedoni fitted luggage, handbooks, pouch and tool kit.
